ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the eye known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to cure it, but in the hands of a thorough, efficient and competent Eye Specialist, the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302 S. Elm St.

UNDER BEDS OF ROSES.

The Heroes of the Gray Are Fondly Remembered Yet.

Who, in this fair southland, the fairest of all fair lands, is so dead to patriotic impulses that he cannot sincerely applaud the motives and the efforts of the "Daughters of the Confederacy" in perpetuating the memory and honoring the names of the thousands of heroes of the lost cause who sleep beneath the sod? All honor and all praise to the true women of Greensboro who have re-established the memorial day celebration. In pursuance of a monument started by them, on yesterday afternoon a fitting service was held in Greene Hill cemetery. Despite the unfavorable weather a large number of people turned out and through a mist of rain joined in a long procession to the "city of the dead," where numbers of the brave men who followed the fortunes of war are sleeping in tents of earth awaiting the last long roll and bugle call.

Gathered around the speaker's stand with uncovered heads the large assemblage stood and listened to a fervent invocation of divine blessing by Rev. L. W. Crawford, after which the band played a dirge while fair young ladies decorated the graves with beautiful wreaths and bouquets of flowers. Next on the program was the recitation of a poem by Mrs. S. L. Alderman, written by Mrs. Hendley. Then a vocal quartette, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" by Messrs. Richard Crawford, Dr. J. H. Wheeler, S. L. and A. H. Alderman.

The speaker of the day, Hon. E. W. Pou, of Smithfield, was introduced by Mayor Taylor in a short speech abounding in beautiful sentiment and choice language. Mr. Pou showed why it was right to continue these celebrations in memory of our beloved dead. The speech throughout was a gem, though its full enjoyment was impaired by the weather conditions—rain falling during most of its delivery. Many sentiments uttered by the eloquent orator were reverently applauded. After the speaking "The Old North State" was sung and prayer and benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. D. Miller.

Again, we desire to commend Guilford Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, for reviving the custom of celebrating memorial day. It was entered into yesterday with earnestness and a sincere spirit of patriotism. It was a pretty sight—the long procession of carriages and young ladies and gentlemen on horseback. May we see each recurring 10th of May celebrated in a fitting manner, and while we do this let us all remember that a few flowers strewn in the pathway of the veterans who still live, (and who are no less heroes than those who laid down their lives) will brighten and cheer and comfort them as they descend the slope of eventide and pass beyond the sunset of this life.

A Card From the Daughters.

Mr. Editor: Through the columns of your paper the Guilford Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy wish to tender their sincere thanks to the following parties for their ready and efficient help in carrying out the details of the celebration of our memorial day:

To the mayor for his beautiful and orate speech of introduction to the speaker, and attention to same.

To the ministers for their fervent and appropriate prayers

To the band for their patriotic music and beautiful quartette.

To the young men who served as marshals—and the president wishes especially to thank Mr. McAdoo, a son of the Confederacy, for his hard work of two days. So perfectly was everything arranged that there was not a hitch in any way.

To the livermen for the use of the handsomest turn-outs in their stables.

To the fire companies for their handsome addition to the procession.

To Prof. Grimley for his hearty cooperation in having the graded schools out.

To all who stripped their yards bare of flowers to do honor to a holy cause; and to Mr. Lindley for an exquisite floral tribute.

To the young ladies, most of them Daughters, who added so much grace and beauty to the occasion; and to the merchants who closed their stores.

To both newspapers for so kindly publishing our various notices.

We are fully alive to the fact that without these ready hearts and hands to help, there could have been no celebration yesterday in memory of our fallen heroes.

We the Guilford Daughters of the Confederacy, have to say to these kind friends, that we hold ourselves in readiness to serve them whenever occasion offers.

We were glad to see so many of the ex-confederates out.

The Daughters of the Confederacy have one sole object in view—to perpetuate the memory of "The Lost Cause" that they represent.

INSURGENTS DISINTEGRATION

Is Daily Manifested Says General Otis.

OTIS' GUNBOATS WELCOMED

By the Natives Who Have Been

Oppressed by the Insurgents—

Wounded Sent Home.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 11—Several important dispatches were received at the war department from Otis this morning. One, in reply to Alger's inquiry, stated that the volunteers in the Philippines would not begin to depart for home until the latter part of the month when several regiments of regulars will have arrived to take their places. Otis says: "The first organization to return is now at Negros, forty miles from Manila. The volunteers at the front know they will begin to leave the latter part of the month. They realize the importance of their presence here now and accept its necessity as a sacrifice which the interest of the United States make imperative. Transports returning this week carry sick and wounded."

"The situation is as follows: The army gunboats have succeeded in passing up the Rio Grande to Calumpit. Railway communication to that point will be secured this week. The passage of the gunboats through the Macabebes country was hailed joyfully by the inhabitants. Temporary civil administration will be organized in the country passed over and our troops will protect the inhabitants against the insurgents' abuses. Signs of the Philippine disintegration are daily manifest."

DEMORALIZATION OF THE REBELS.

Manila, May 11—Manager Higgins, of the Manila-Dagupan Railroad, arrived from inside the rebel lines at San Fernando today. He corroborates the stories of the demoralization of the rebels and says they are looting all the natives' property. Higgins adds that now is the time for the Americans to strike hard.

WITHOUT MEDICAL TREATMENT.

Sister-in-Law of Former Vice-President Dies in Chicago.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, May 11—Mrs. Adlai T. Ewing, sister-in-law of former Vice-President Stevenson, died here today, without medical treatment, under the Christian Science treatment, refusing to submit to an operation which the surgeons declare would have prolonged her life. The facts have only been revealed since her death and the cremation of the body Saturday.

Mrs. Ewing was a devoted member of the Christian Science Circle in this city, and had converted several members of her family. She had suffered from an intense disorder which the physicians said would prove fatal unless relieved.

Fishkill Landing, N. Y., May 11—An unknown man was struck by a N. Y. Central train at Dutchess Junction last night and hurled with great force forty feet through the air. Peter Bembe was standing near the track at the time, and the swiftly moving body struck him and knocked him down, breaking his arm. The stranger was killed instantly.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.

Will be Called by the President to Meet About October 20.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 11—It is reasonably certain that an extra session of congress will be called. The date, it is thought, will be about October 20. The President wants the policy of the government in respect to the Philippines and our other possessions strongly defined, and the currency question disposed of, before the next presidential campaign opens.

DAVID SCHENCK, JR., DEAD.

One of the Brightest Members of the Greensboro Bar.

For several days, as our readers have been informed, David Schenck, Jr., has been struggling with that peculiar disease, appendicitis. Two weeks ago he was in apparent perfect health. Today he is dead. The silent messenger called for him at 9:30 o'clock last night.

On Tuesday Dr. J. B. S. Holmes, of Atlanta, arrived in response to a message, and performed on Mr. Schenck in the hope of saving his life. He was assisted in the operation by Dr. Robertson, of Danville, and Dr. Beall and Wilson, of this city. Mr. Schenck stood the operation well, but relief came too late, and while his friends clung to the idea that as long as there is life there is hope, medical skill could not save him and today his home is shrouded in the sorrow of death.

David Schenck, Jr., was the son of Judge D. Schenck, and was one of the brightest lawyers of the Greensboro bar. He had handled some very difficult cases and always acquitted himself with credit, winning high praise from his brethren in the profession. He was educated at Bingham School and Chapel Hill, studied law under Capt. Price in Salisbury and received his license to practice his chosen profession about nine years ago. About five years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Lela Peyton, of this city, and two bright little boys have blessed this union. He was 29 years of age. He has been a resident of this city since 1882, coming here in that year with his father's family from Lincoln, their former home.

The funeral services will be conducted from the residence tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, by Rev. Dr. E. W. Smith, of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Horace Weeks Jones, of the Episcopal church. The following have been selected as pall-bearers: Messrs. J. J. Nelson, J. S. Michaux, C. G. Wright, D. G. Devenish, S. L. Gilmer and J. F. Jordan. Interment will be made in Greene Hill cemetery.

WINSTON-SALEM POSTOFFICE

The Matter Has Finally Been Amicably Settled.

RALEIGH'S FEDERAL PRISONERS.

Have Sent in a Complaint of Ill Treatment to the Washington Department of Justice.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., May 11—The Postmaster General has finally settled the controversy between the postoffices at Winston and Salem, North Carolina. Although at first there was great opposition to the discontinuance of the postoffice at Salem by the residents of that town, the matter was brought to a focus, as announced some time ago, and a reconciliation between the two towns was effected. By the settlement of the difficulty, the name adopted for the new postoffice will hereafter be known as "Winston-Salem," which has long been virtually the name of the city. The order of the Postmaster General consolidating the two postoffices will go into effect on July 1st, or at the beginning of the next fiscal year. This postoffice will be the only one with a hyphenated name in the country.

When the matter of the consolidation of the two towns into one postoffice was first broached, there was intense opposition from the people of Salem, who have for many years been gradually losing their identity as a separate town, while Winston, on the other hand has been steadily forging ahead, as the town itself. Salem people did not wish to completely lose the identity which they have enjoyed, in fact longer than Winston, which is a town comparatively new. By the use of the hyphenated name, Salem will still retain its ancient identity. The postoffice at Salem will, of course, be abolished, but a sub-station will be established. The postmaster at Winston will be commissioned as postmaster of the consolidated office, and it is said at the postoffice department that the present incumbent of the postoffice at Salem will be placed in charge of the Salem sub-station, or else offered a clerkship in the main postoffice.

Members of the District of Columbia Post, Confederate Veterans are much interested in the efforts which are to be made during the Charleston reunion, to raise a fund for the purpose of rebuilding the home of General Wade Hampton. The general from his long residence in Washington city is personally known to nearly every one of the members of the local Confederate organization, and they are anxious to do their part towards subscribing to the fund. A member of the local camp stated Wednesday that he thought that the district members would take a hearty part in this work.

The delegates who went to Charleston to attend the reunion from this city and Alexandria are expected to return on Saturday. They will come back home on the same special trains which carried them to Charleston. On account of the numerous complaints which have been received at the department of justice from the federal prisoners confined at the Raleigh penitentiary, the attorney general has decided to send a special examiner to Raleigh, to investigate into the grounds for the charges. While the complaints have been very numerous, it is said at the department of justice that the charges of cruel treatment of the federal prisoners is absolutely denied by the authorities of the penitentiary. Similar complaints have also been received from federal prisoners in Ohio, and other penitentiaries.

A number of Southern people, particularly from North Carolina, have passed through Washington since Monday, enroute for New York to attend the triennial meeting of the society of Cincinnati. This organization was started May 13th, 1793, at Fish Kill, New York, by General Washington and others, the first meeting being held at that place. The society disbanded in most of the states, soon after its organization, but it has been revived. At the present triennial convention, delegates are expected to attend from Vermont, New Hampshire and Georgia. The society was revived in 1896, and now exists in all of the thirteen original states, and also in France.

At the Postal Telegraph Company's office in this city, it is stated that the company will shortly extend its lines in several of the southern states, including South Carolina, and Georgia. This has been contemplated for some time, and the management hopes to begin work within a short time.

Senator Martin, some time ago made application for the pardon, as announced, of Thomas W. Lacey, post-office clerk at Richmond, charged with robbing the mails. Senator Martin and Col. Lamb, congressman from the Richmond district are both convinced of Lacey's entire innocence. He is confined at the North Carolina penitentiary, and the superintendent of the penitentiary is an endorsement of the application for pardon says that he does not believe Lacey guilty, and that every action on his part goes to prove that he is an innocent man. President McKinley has promised to consider the matter, but it is not thought he will reach a determination before his return from Hot Springs. The matter is now before the department of justice.

Dr. R. N. Harper, president of the Virginia democratic association, is among the delegates to the Richmond conference, representing Loudoun county.

NEW ENGINE HAS COME.

Furnace Now Turning Out Number 1 Foundry Iron.

The new one thousand horse power engine for the Empire Steel and Iron furnace has arrived and it is a monster. As stated some time ago, it will be placed beside the engine now used and together the mighty machines will furnish nineteen hundred horse power. New boilers will also be put in soon. The furnace is now making number 1 and number 2 foundry iron, the former the finest grade of pig iron manufactured. Four blasts were made yesterday and Manager Noble expects to make that number daily from now on. The new furnace will be constructed and put in blast in about four months.

Thought the City on Fire.

A gentleman of South Greensboro awoke this morning about 3:30 o'clock and thought the whole city was on fire. On the northern heavens was painted a lurid glare from the great roaring, sizzling iron and steel furnace a mile north of Greensboro. He describes it as something grand. You ought to get up and see it.

JIM CROW CAR LAW.

The entirely unexpected has happened. The railroad commission, that profound and deliberate body, have at last rendered a decision in regard to the Jim Crow car law. Everybody had long since thought that another legislature would be required to refresh their memory on the matter.

The commission decides that the below-named systems must provide separate accommodations for the races:

The Seaboard and all of its branch lines, with the exception of the Atlantic specials, two in number.

The Coast Line and all of its divisions, through trains Nos. 23 and 78 exempted.

The Lynchburg & Durham and the Roanoke & Southern divisions of the Norfolk & Western.

All passenger trains on the Atlantic & North Carolina.

The Norfolk & Southern and its steamboats, the Neuse and Newbern.

The South Carolina & Georgia.

The Southern and all its trains with the exception of the Western North Carolina branch from Asheville to Murphy.

All the big systems will be excused from providing Jim Crow cars for their vestibule and through trains on the ground that they do not cater for local traffic and stop at only a few points in the state.

All other railroads in the state than those mentioned above escape the operation of the act.

It is a most deplorable fact that the number of ministers of the gospel throughout the country who employ sensational methods to entertain their congregations is increasing. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of the far-renowned Plymouth church, Boston, has adopted the unique, but in no wise commendable plan of taking for the theme of his Sunday's discourse some popular novel. Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter" was chosen for his subject last Sabbath, and the preacher announced that he will continue the new mode of "sermon preaching." Dr. Hillis may attract large crowds to his church by his ecclesiastical anomaly, but that influence which he possesses, or should possess, for the saving of souls must necessarily be seriously impaired when he diverts from the true and straight line established by the Nazarene. Commenting on the incident the North Carolina Christian Advocate very sensibly observes:

"Such discourses, however much of moral value they may contain, cannot be called, in the proper sense, sermons, nor is the sacred desk in God's house the place for their delivery. The Bible is pre-eminently the preacher's book. While the whole range of literature, observation and experience is open to him for purposes of illustration and enforcement, some text from this book, enunciating some principle or truth, should form the foundation of every message to the people."

One of the most pleasing virtues of Admiral Dewey is his modesty. It is said by his most intimate friends that he feels a far greater dread in contemplating a visit to the welcoming shores of America than he experienced when steaming uninvited into the Asiatic seas in search of the Spanish fleet. If the old warhorse should elude the newspaper correspondents and slip home to his family unobserved, the flatterers and dinner-givers and celebrationists would be terribly disappointed, but the respect and the love of the great body of the people for him would only be increased.

Andrew Carnegie is probably the richest man in America, his possessions being valued at two hundred millions. And there are greater rascals who are not worth nearly so much.

A gentleman facetiously remarked today that the Southern would not hesitate to make all its trains "vestibules" in order to evade the Jim Crow law.

In the untimely death of Mr. David Schenck, Jr., the legal fraternity of the State sustains a cruel blow. And he will be missed sorely as a public-spirited resident of Greensboro and a patriotic citizen of North Carolina.

The beef investigation is ended, to the great relief of all. But the supreme disgust of the American people has only begun and will increase in intensity till Alger and Eagan are kicked from their high places.

Let us hope that those hot springs will have the effect of mitigating our president's attack of expansion.

JUDGE EWART'S SALARY.

Entitled to the Same From Date of Recess Appointment.

Washington, May 10.—The Comptroller of the Currency has decided that Judge Ewart of the Western district of North Carolina, is entitled to receive the salary attached to the office from the date of his qualification under the recess appointment issued to him by the President on April 13th, 1899. During the last session of congress, Mr. Ewart served as district judge under a recess appointment issued July 13th, 1898.

On December 13th, 1898, the President again sent his nomination to the Senate, but no action was taken thereon. On April 13th, 1899, a second recess appointment was issued to Mr. Ewart under which he qualified, and the question was raised by the disbursing clerk of the department of justice whether he was entitled to a salary from April 13th last.

The Comptroller reviews the decision of former attorneys general as to the authority of the president in making recess appointments and decides the question in the affirmative.

Gen. Gomez Wants An Army.

Havana, May 9.—General Maximo Gomez is trying to persuade Governor General Brooke that a Cuban standing army of 15,000 men is a necessary adjunct to the proper government of the island.

The proposition is not likely to receive much consideration at headquarters, where considerable surprise was occasioned by this magnificent project, which, if adopted, Gomez doubtless believes would be placed under his personal control.

Rules to be followed in paying the Cuban troops were published yesterday. Although the surrender of arms is a necessary precedent of payment, where a soldier without arms can prove he saw service, he will be paid.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case of colic or children.

Discovered by a Woman

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hammond & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

THE OREGON'S GREAT TRIP.

Clark and His Men Were Ready for Cervera.

Captain Charles E. Clark, formerly of the battleship Oregon, who arrived here last evening, says in an interview, that he is still suffering from the strain of the long, anxious voyage around Cape Horn a year ago, and that he cannot sleep much. He added: "I did not average two hours' sleep in each twenty-four hours during the voyage. We strained every nerve until we got to the Straits of Magellan. Then I had to keep constant lookout for the Spanish gunboat Temerario. The channel through the Maellan is narrow and tortuous, and I was afraid that the Temerario might make a dash at us at any moment from behind some headland. Our rapid-fire guns were loaded and ready. At Rio we found the Temerario, and I learned that war had been declared. I sent word to the captain of the Temerario that if he came within a mile of the Oregon I would open fire on him without further notice. From Rio there was uncertainty at every step. If we had met Cervera on our way up, my plans were to run away and let the Spaniards chase me. That would have compelled them to get into some sort of column formation, and I would only have to fight the nearest vessel. If able to inflict sufficient damage in that way, I should have put about and given them battle. I was advised by the department to remain at Bahia, but I was given carte blanche, so I decided to go on. The responsibility was fearful, and men stood or slept by their guns day and night. Barbadoes was reached March 18. There I learned that Cervera's fleet was at Martinique, just north, so to 'fool' him I headed northwest, a fact I felt would be communicated to Cervera. In the darkness I changed my course to due south and ran below Barbadoes, thence east and north again, passing far east of Martinique."

Captain Clark says that Cervera knew that he was doomed when he left Santiago harbor.

"Had he remained there three weeks longer our soldiers would have been in sad plight, and there was a change of a tropical storm scattering our ships. Santiago could not then have been taken without considerable bloodshed."

Rheumatism Cured.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. Cuyler, Red Creek, N. Y.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a delicious form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

The jury in the case of Will Scott, colored, on trial at Suffolk, Va., for the murder of Tom Jones, on March 28, was unable to agree.

Yellow Jaundice Cured

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from yellow jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist."

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over thirty years' experience. A skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is, of course, regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.
 Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst imaginable cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., take his advice and be well.

French cloth will be sent for 10 cents extra to pay the cost of this more handsome and more durable binding. Address World's Dispensary Medical Assn., Buffalo, N. Y.

W. J. RIDGE,
LOW PRICE FURNITURE HOUSE.

Too Much For Him.
 It is evidently one thing to work without knowing how much we do and another thing to have our labors mapped out before us in detail. For several months a business house in this city has enjoyed the ministrations of an unusually faithful colored janitor. Always prompt and faithful, unerring in the discharge of his various duties, Tom was a great favorite with the firm, and the prospect was that he would abide with them many years.

One day it occurred to the senior partner that a little more system in Tom's routine would be advisable and perhaps render his work a trifle easier, so he wrote out in plain characters an outline of the chores Tom had been doing every week, arranged perhaps with more convenience to the firm and to Tom. Unfortunately Tom could not read, so the list was given to another man employed on rougher work, with instructions to read it to Tom and explain to him each day's prescribed duties.
 When the schedule was read to Tom, however, the effect was astonishing and disastrous. He listened quietly, but his eyes grew bigger and his black wool seemed to bristle on his head. At the end he reached for his cap and said to the porter: "Good gracious! I ain't goin to do all that work." Then he walked out and hasn't been seen since.—Indianapolis Journal.

Tricked the Victims Camel.
 A valuable camel working in an oil mill in Africa was beaten by its driver. Seeing that the camel had treasured up the injury and was only waiting a favorable chance for revenge, the driver kept a strict watch upon the animal. Time passed away. The camel, knowing that it was watched, was quiet and obedient, and the driver began to think that the beating was forgotten, when one night, after several months had gone by, the man was sleeping on a raised platform in the mill, while, as is customary, the camel was stabled in a corner.
 Happening to awake, the driver saw by the bright moonlight that when all was quiet the animal looked cautiously around, rose softly and, stealing toward a spot where a bundle of clothes and a burruss thrown carelessly on the ground resembled a sleeping figure, cast itself with violence upon them, rolling with all its weight and tearing them most viciously with its teeth. Satisfied that its revenge was complete, the camel was returning to its corner when the driver sat up and spoke. At the sound of his voice and realizing the mistake it had made, the animal was so mortified at the failure and discovery of its scheme that it dashed its head against the wall and died on the spot.

YOU'LL BE SURPRISED
 If You Read the Following and Act Upon Its Suggestion.
 Up to recent times it has been thought that really beautiful and attractive displays could only be made in stores which carried all kinds of colored and fancy fabrics. Some time ago if you had talked of a pretty shoe store, with nothing in it but shoes, you would have been laughed at. Not so now.

A visit to the Carolina Shoe Co.'s store, 302 South Elm, will convince you that Mr. Norris, the manager, and Mr. Banks Boone, salesmen, are artists in their line. You will not find handsome shoes in large cities than you will see there. But after all, there is no great secret about it, as they control in Greensboro the leading and most celebrated manufacturers of this country and pay only the latest and up-to-date shapes, made over their famous "Foot-Form" last. The stock comprises Banister's and Crossett's fine shoes for men; Laird Schober & Co.'s, Krippendorff, Dittmann Co.'s and H. W. Merriou's fine shoes for women and children; also a full line of cheaper goods.
 The store is a pride to Greensboro and a credit to the entire State. This store handles only solid goods and has only one price to all. Mr. Norris believes in printer's ink. Read his ad. in today's issue.

Diplomacy.
 "And so Fannie Perleigh is going to marry that old, decrepit fellow just because he has a lot of money?"
 "Oh, no, that isn't the reason. She's going to marry him because her parents, by throwing out clever hints, succeeded in making her believe they didn't want her to have him."—Chicago News.

It Is Pathetic, Nevertheless.

Proud of Her Work.

 "You don't want to tell me that they are all your own work? What a talented little wife I'm going to have!"
 And she smiled, though the plain truth was that she had bought the uppers, paid a man to sew them and then managed to sew the bows on crooked after her mother had made them. Yet she was very proud and really wondered how she had managed to accomplish so much.—Detroit Journal.

 "Yes," said the yellow dog, "I believe after death we enter into another sphere of action. I think I'll be a golf player."
 "How do you figure that out?" queried the black and tan.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Golf and bicycle suits just received at C. M. Vanstory & Co's. See ad.

Policeman Whittington expects soon to build a new residence on his Ashboro street property. It will be a two story structure.

A called meeting of Orange Presbyterian church this afternoon to ordain Rev. Allen Jones who is doing evangelistic work in Ashe county.

If you want to die without leaving your family in good circumstances, don't read Murray Bros.' ad., for it won't interest you, but it is very interesting to those who want protection.

The Oriental dancers, who showed here yesterday afternoon and last night, left this morning for Winston. Those who attended the performance, say that it was not indecent. The company will return here in August.

An extra coach filled with children from the deaf, dumb and blind asylum at Raleigh, was attached to the early train from the east this morning. The children were being taken to their respective homes in the western part of the state. Several of them were taken up the Winston road.

The Telegram is pleased to note the success of the insurance firm of Matthews & Hammer. They are both industrious young men, and besides the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, represent some of the strongest fire and accident companies in existence. Watch their ad.

The enterprising Charlotte Observer appeared this morning in two parts, similar in form to the Sunday editions. Part 2 contains the paper on "The Opportunities of a Sunday-school with a Factory Population," read by Rev. J. A. Baldwin, before the Epworth League and Sunday school conference, which met in Greensboro recently.

The Meeting at Centenary.

Rev. T. E. Wagg, who is conducting the meeting at Centenary church, preached another earnest and convincing sermon last night. The rain continued to fall until after the preaching hour, and, considering this fact, the congregation was large. The prospects are now that the weather will be fair tonight and a large congregation will no doubt attend. Interest in the meeting is increasing and much good is being accomplished. Mr. Wagg is a diligent expounder of the gospel and all who possibly can should attend the meetings.

Will Not Be Bad.

The work of grading the streets near the new depot was begun this morning and from what has been done today one would judge that the grade will not be so bad as expected. It will look well and will not cause the expected inconvenience to hacks and hotel busses in backing up to the platform. But if about half the unsightly hacks should be crowded out and the absence of the same proportion of boisterous, and in many cases insolent, drivers necessitated, the people would not grumble.

Queen Quality.

Shoes and Oxford ties—the only popular shoes ever sold in Greensboro. They fit the feet as nature intends and are up-to-date in every detail. Price of shoes $3.00, Oxford ties $2.50. Shrier's, sole agents, 216 South Elm.

Fifty pairs ladies tan and chocolate Oxford ties, good ones, at Thacker & Brookmann's, to be sold at $1.50 and $1.25. These are special bargains, worth investigating if you want tan shoes for summer wear.

Ralph Bingham.

A treat is in store for the people of Greensboro in the appearance of Ralph Bingham at the Academy of Music one night during the second week of June, under the auspices of Ladies' Aid Society, Centenary M. E. church. Full particulars will be given later.

A large variety of Ladies' Neckwear, all the very latest styles Silk, Figue and Madras, just received. 25c, 50c, 75c. Kaufmann, under the Benbow.

An Adventurous Hack Driver.

George Green, who drives one of Greensboro's "excellent" public hacks, made a reckless dash with his team last night and smashed one of the Southern's gates at the South Elm street crossing. A train was about to cross the street and the gates had been lowered, when Green, coming from South Greensboro at a lively pace, drove against the gate on that side bending it across the track where the train struck it and completed its destruction. The horses were not hurt, but it is pleasing to note that the important functionary was paid for his recklessness by slight injury to himself and carriage.
